

United States Bankruptcy Court, Southern District of Alabama Courtroom Wireless Service Access Disclaimer

Please read and acknowledge this disclaimer prior to executing the Courtroom Wireless Service Access Registration Form.

Privacy and Security

Wireless systems use radio channels to transmit voice and data communications over a complex network. Privacy cannot be guaranteed and the Court cannot be liable to the user or any other party for any lack of privacy you experience while using the Court's wireless courtroom service. We have the right, but not the obligation, to monitor, intercept and disclose any transmissions over or using our facilities and could perhaps be required under certain circumstances (for example, in response to lawful process, orders, subpoenas, or warrants or to protect our property) to disclose transmission to others. You acknowledge that the wireless courtroom service is not inherently secure and that wireless communications can be intercepted by equipment and software designed for that purpose. Notwithstanding the court's basic efforts to enhance security with respect to this wireless courtroom service, the Court cannot guarantee the effectiveness of these efforts and will not be liable to you or any other party for any lack of security that may result from your use of the wireless courtroom service.

You acknowledge that you are responsible for taking such precautions and providing such security measures best suited for your situation and intended use of the wireless courtroom service. We strongly encourage and support certain user-provided security solutions such as virtual private networks, encryption and personal firewalls.

By using this wireless courtroom service, which is provided free of charge, you agree not to share and to protect your court authorized username(s) and password. You agree to notify us immediately if you become aware of any security breach. You also agree to notify the court when you discontinue legal practice at this court so that the appropriate username(s) can be removed. In order to comply with security policies, all wireless usernames will be removed annually beginning June 1, 2018 and registration will have to be renewed by each applicant for wireless access. Should you decide to roam on any other network there is no guarantee of its security, privacy standards or of your ability to work on such network as there are other types of network devices with Internet security issues or risks. For example, wired and wireless networks and devices such as PDAs, smartphones, desk tops, laptops and servers may be susceptible to viruses, Trojan horses and denial of service attacks. The Court encourages the use of other resources for comprehensive information concerning these and other security risks and issues. In no event will the court assume any responsibility for any damage caused by viruses, Trojan horses, denial of service attacks, or breach of security encountered while using the wireless courtroom service.

You acknowledge that you have read the foregoing disclaimer and understand that you are responsible for your own security should you elect to use the wireless courtroom service.
